Milanes v. Chertoff, 08 Civ. 2354 (LMM) (KNF)

Dear Judge McKenna:

The Government is respectfully enclosing a courtesy copy of the Federal Bureau of Investigation administrative record for the above-referenced matter, the original of which will be filed with the Court. For the convenience of the Court, the Government is enclosing both a paper copy of the record and a disk containing a PDF copy.

Because of this administrative record's size, and because the Government anticipates that future administrative records in this case will be voluminous and, in the case of plaintiffs' A-Files, will include personal information, the Government respectfully requests the Court's permission to file its administrative records with the Clerk of Court by manually filing a hard copy and computer disks, rather than through the ECF system. We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Granted. So ordered.
